All of the schools are small as will be seen from the above, and I think that more weeks of schooling could be had for the same money by uniting several of the smallest schools.

The work done by teachers and pupils during the past year, as a rule, has given good satisfaction.

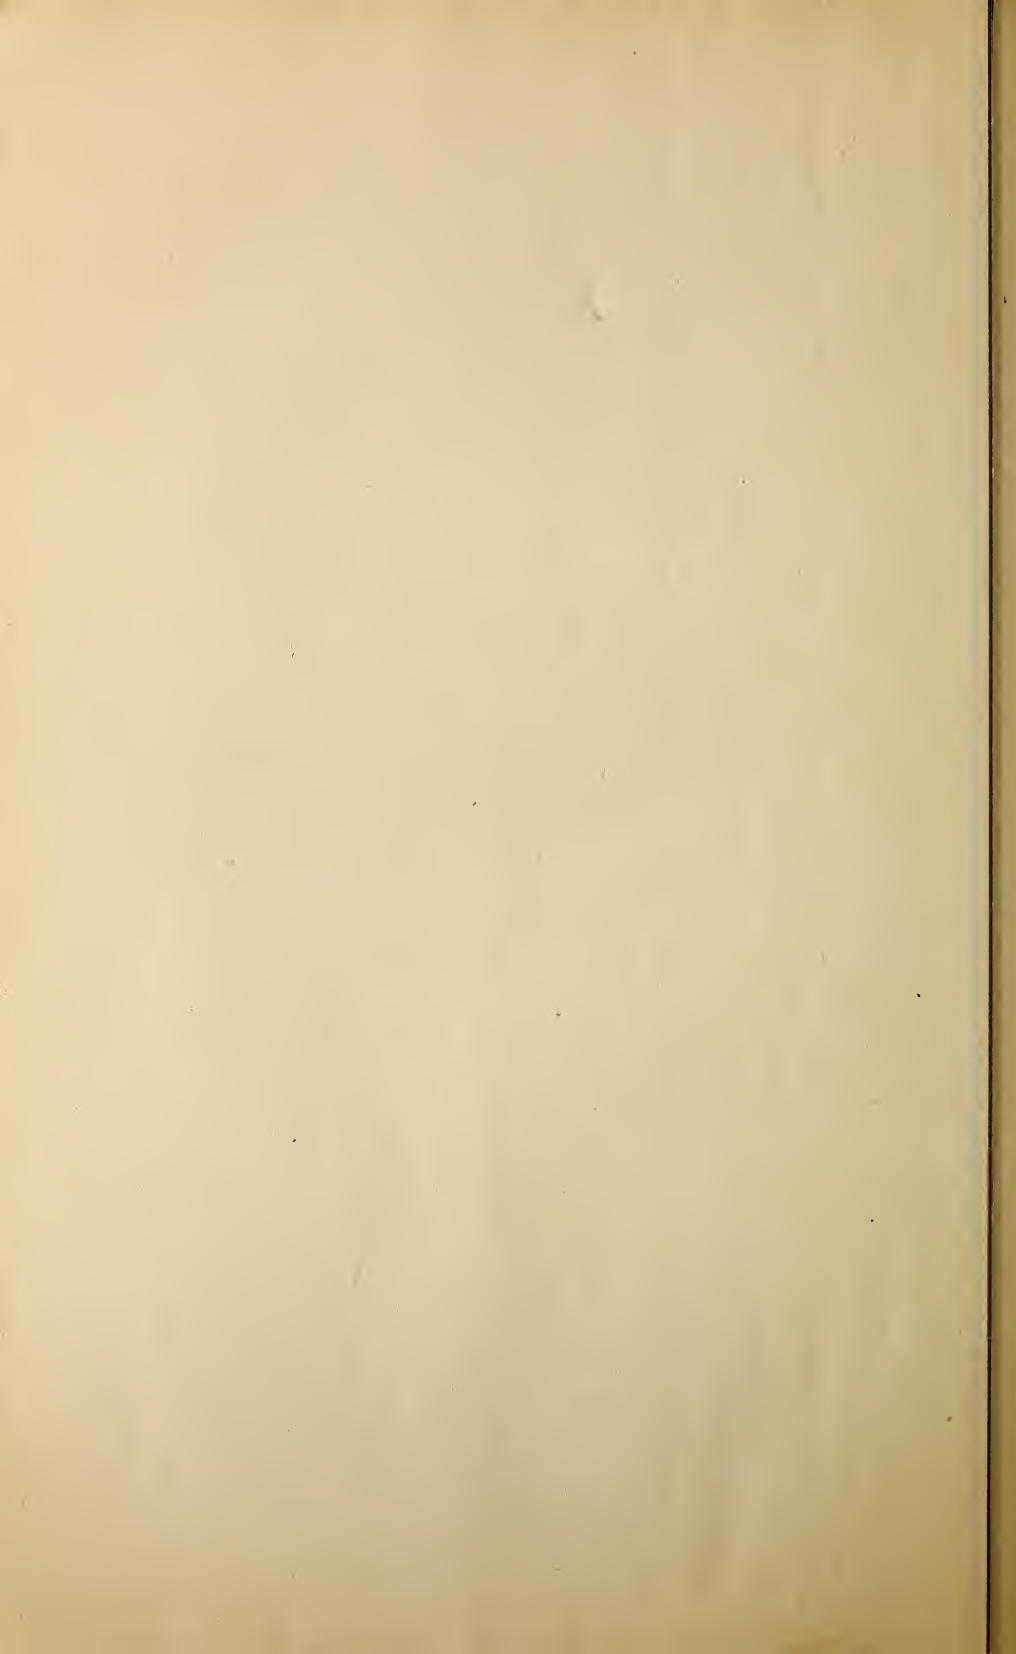

New grammars have been introduced this year and the old books given in exchange. The geographies now in use are quite badly worn, and many of the books will soon have to be replaced by new ones, and I would recommend a change in the text book.

The Legislature, at its last session, passed a law requiring towns to furnish flags for school buildings. On July 4th, 1908, a new star will be added to the flag for the new state of Oklahoma, and it was thought best to procure flags for our schools after that date. "If children are so taught that they love and honor the flag much has been done to make them safe and helpful citizens."

I wish to say that I have tried to do my duty conscientiously, and earnestly thank all who have helped make the work of the past year profitable.

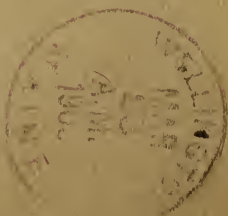

Respectfully submitted,

NELLIE M. CURTIS, Supt. of Schools.
